

A Message from Lisa Price, Talent Agent and Owner of The Price Group. For our country and the world, the ongoing social unrest and the tragic killing of many Black people has brought to the forefront the significant racial injustice that still exists. While inclusion and diversity have long been a priority at TPG, in these serious times, we recognize more than ever that we need to continue working to do better. At TPG, we stand with our Black Employees, Clients, and communities, and we stand for racial justice.

Sincerely,

Lisa R Price
